Dear Candidate:

The Association of Black Law Enforcers has created a Scholarship Program to recognize the contribution of the first Canadian Black Law Enforcers, Rose Fortune (1774-1864) and Peter C. A.B.L.E. is committed to ensuring that the Criminal Justice System is reflective of the entire Canadian community and provides opportunities for our young people to serve, protect and correct. Accordingly, A.B.L.E. will contribute funds toward the tuition fees of each successful candidate's post secondary education, if pursuing the following areas of study.

- LAW ENFORCEMENT / LAW & SECURITY
- CORRECTIONAL WORKER PROGRAM
- CRIMINOLOGY
- LAW OR CRIMINAL JUSTICE STUDIES
- POLICE FOUNDATION

Please follow the instructions carefully. Your application with supporting letters and documents must be received at our office by March 19, 2010.
